

Personal Data Policy

At Sacci, we do our utmost to protect your personal integrity and act in accordance with current legal requirements for data and personal data protection.

We register and store information in our database. There we process personal data in the form of name, e-mail and telephone. The data is used for the purpose of communicating with our customers, suppliers and partners. We also use the personal data for newsletters and other web mailings.

We may also use the personal data for the purpose of following up the customer relationship, conducting customer surveys and in the event of sending offers from Sacci.

In cases where information is provided to us via e-mail, consent is given to any personal data being registered.
